To whom it may concern:

Good day!

This is to recommend MS. MARY ROSELIT G. SEVILLA for the Teaching Job that she is applying for. She has been with us in the Lower Elementary Level for the past six years and her work ethic has been exceptional. She is readily available and is skilled in a lot of aspects. She can work under pressure, can grasp concepts on help and the prevalence of behavior in the children that she is handling.

She can handle difficult classroom situations with a calm, professional demeanor and pay careful attention to the challenge of the moment. She has a positive attitude, great understanding, and is very compassionate in dealing with school work.

She is approachable, decisive, and has a gist for learning. She can solve problems and has lengthy patience in work and personal-related challenges. She is a great candidate for hiring.

Thank you for taking the time to peruse this short description of Teacher Roselit's attributes. Please send me your queries should you want to be clarified on things through: jomaiotg@gmail.com
